

United Way of Olmsted County's

CULTURALLY POWERED COMMUNITIES

Help us build back a better, more equitable Olmsted County

United Way of Olmsted County's Culturally Powered Communities is a transformational capacity-building program designed to strengthen the education, health, and financial stability of Olmsted County's cultural communities by strengthening the organizations that serve them.

Anavelia Segura - Intermix Project Founder

United Way

United Way of Olmsted County

TOGETHER,
WE BUILD BETTER LIVES

PERSON-CENTERED

FOSTERING POTENTIAL

LIVING UNITED

LEARN MORE AT UWOLMSTED.ORG/CPC

Meet Our Partners

- Boys and Girls Club of Rochester
- Damascus Way
- Ethiopian Community of Rochester
- Family Service Rochester
- Intermix Project
- Listos
- Next Chapter Ministries
- Pamoja

Yitbarek Mirete - Co-Leader of Ethiopian Community of Rochester, MN The Ethiopian Community of Rochester identifies culturally-specific barriers and works to address issues faced by the Ethiopian community.

Tierre Webster - Executive Director of Damascus Way The mission of Damascus Way is to serve individuals returning to our community after a period of incarceration. The Damascus Way service model includes housing linked with services.

Our Sponsors

Culturally Powered Communities is an equity strategy made possible through a collaboration between United Way of Olmsted County and Mayo Clinic.

CPC is powered in partnership with Otto Bremer Trust. We appreciate the support of our partners at Cradle 2 Career, The Diversity Council, Emmright Consulting, Intercultural Mutual Assistance Association, Minnesota Council of Nonprofits, Rochester Area Foundation, Sports Mentorship Academy, and Zumbro Valley Health Center.

LEARN MORE AT UWOLMSTED.ORG/CPC

Family Service Rochester is a community-based organization providing mental health, senior independence, child well-being, and family stability services.

Next Chapter Ministries' vision is to change the culture of crime in Rochester & Olmsted County, and it is happening day by day, one life at a time.

The mission of Boys & Girls Club of Rochester is to empower all kids, but especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential.

The mission of Listos is to provide an inclusive, affordable, unique, Spanish and English childcare and preschool experience.